LYME Regis Town Council was "not following correct procedure" in granting The Hub youth club an additional £10,000 without a formal agreement, according to leading councillor Mark Gage, who said he would "take ultimate responsibility" for the mistake.

The town council entered into a three-year Service Level Agreement (SLA) with The Hub, owned by Lyme Regis Development Trust, to give the facility £10,000 a year, which was due to expire in March 2013. However, a fourth payment of £10,000 was included in the current financial year's budget with no one picking up on the fact that the agreement had expired until recently.

It was revealed at last week's meeting that £5,000 of this had already been paid but the council will now consider claiming it back at a meeting next month to fall in line with policy.

Councillor Gage, chairman of the council's influential Strategy & Policy Committee which sets the budget, argued against the way in which the matter had been reported in the local press over the past two weeks, saying it was not a "payment made in error", as stated in the View From Lyme Regis.

However, he went on to say that the mistake was

By FRANCESCA EVANS

caused by a "drafting error" in the SLA and the council had not followed correct procedure in granting the additional payment.

In a statement at last week's meeting, Councillor Gage said: "One of my concerns is the way this item has been reported and some of the more florid [sic] headlines and phrases which have been used. When reported last week, at no point was I asked to comment or clarify the statements made within the report.

"It's at this point that we're starting to get into semantics. What I had a problem with was statements like 'payment made in error'; it made it sound like the payment had been dealt with in an inappropriate manner.

"What has transpired, and as we reported in the budget strategy [at the last Strategy & Policy meeting earlier this month], is that the SLA with The Hub, as drafted, had in fact concluded. I had been asked this as a direct question on a number of occasions in the past, whether it was still in force, and on each occasion I answered in good faith that it was still in place.

"A distinct item put in our budget planning process highlighted a £10,000 payment to The Hub on the two occasions when it was debated. But what is clear, as I have looked into this more, that as the SLA was not in force – and I'm still confirming this but I'm pretty certain at this point – that we have not, in awarding that payment to The Hub, followed the correct process and correct procedures that we need to follow as a town council when we award money to outside bodies.

■ TAKING THE BLAME:
Councillor Mark Gage said he would take responsibility for the mistake and apologise

"What we've had is a drafting error in the SLA, which meant it ceased before it was intended to and, as such, I believe that we did not follow the correct process when we made that payment. As chairman of Strategy & Policy I'm more than happy to put my hands up and take ultimate responsibility for that.

"We obviously need to resolve this situation and we will be bringing a full report to the next Strategy & Policy suggesting how we move forward on this and what we need to do to make sure any payments we have made and any payments we wish to continue to make are made through the correct processes and procedures.

"As I say, I take responsibility; it's unfortunate and I apologise for the disruption this will have caused the council and, much more importantly, to The Hub and the many young people of the town who use what is an excellent and growing facility."

Councillor Anita Williams commented: "I echo Councillor Gage's view; I think it would be unfortunate to continue the payment, we could get in all sorts of issues so I think it's right to bring the payment back but we should consider a grant application from The Hub as soon as we can."

She added that she would not like to see any "blurring" between what is in the budget and what has been approved by the council, explaining that money set aside in the budget was for things the council "intends to do or may do" but did not necessarily mean they had been approved by the council.

Councillor Lovell said he believed the payment was "ultra vires" and asked why Councillor Gage had not brought the fact that the SLA had expired to the council as soon as he found out, adding it was an "incorrect" way to deal with it.

The Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman, said it was "a very recent realisation" made during research for the budget setting process for the upcoming financial year.

Councillor Michaela Ellis argued that she had questioned the grant to The Hub last year and was told that the SLA had another year to run. She showed members The Hub's business plan which stated when the agreement expired, adding: "There must be one of

She went to school at Budmouth and then Weymouth College before going to work in the financial sector where she is now a fully qualified independent financial advisor.

● WHY do you live in Weymouth?

Because it is a beautiful place and this is where my business is.

● WHERE do you go for your holidays?

Somewhere different every year. My motto is that you never visit the same place twice. For my last holiday I went to the Maldives.

● WHAT is your favourite time of the year?

Summer because the weather is lovely and Weymouth is a fantastic location to be near the sea where you can make the most of your surroundings.

● WHAT is your favourite film?

War Horse because it is a great story which covers all emotions.

● WHAT is the scariest thing that has ever happened to you?

Coming face to face with a snake in a zoo when I was a child. It was not in a display but hanging round a woman's neck who was showing it off to visitors. It was just in my face when I came round a corner and I screamed and ran off.

● IF YOU could live your life again what would you be?

The same as I am now because I am so happy with a lovely business and a lovely family.

● WHICH people would you invite to your dream dinner party?

Marilyn Monroe, so I could see what she was really about, and Winston Churchill because I just think he would be incredibly interesting because of the circumstances he lived in and the decisions he had to make.

● WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

Pay all my friends and family's mortgages off. There are no pockets in a shroud.

● WHAT do you hope the future holds?

Health, wealth and happiness. Those are the three things that matter.

Councillors rescind controversial new bylaws

EIGHT MEMBERS SIGN RESCINDING MOTION AFTER CYCLING AND SKATEBOARDING RULES CAUSE UPROAR

A MOTION to rescind the decision to allow cycling and skateboarding on Marine Parade and in the cemetery has been passed by Lyme Regis Town Council.

Proposed and seconded by veteran councillors Owen Lovell and Stan Williams, the rescinding motion was signed by a total of eight members and put forward at last week's meeting.

The council caused uproar in the town when they passed new bylaws which did not ban cycling and skateboarding on Marine Parade and in the cemetery, among other areas. They received a barrage of criticism on social networking sites, eventually resulting in a sign accusing councillors of "crimes against Lyme Regis" being posted on the railings at Cobb Gate.

Chairman of the council's Strategy & Policy Committee, Councillor Mark Gage, later released a statement to the press saying it was never the council's intention to allow skateboarding and cycling in these areas, as the cemetery was already covered by the Local Authorities' Cemetery Order of 1977 and the Marine Parade by a traffic regulation order which would overrule any bylaws. He explained that the council had grouped together several of its public spaces to keep the bylaws as simple as possible.

However, opposing councillors still went ahead with their rescinding motion last week, signed by Councillors Williams and Lovell, the Mayor Sally Holman, Deputy Mayor Anita Williams, Michaela Ellis, Ann Bradbury, George Symonds and Cheryl Reynolds. Councillor Lorna Jenkin also voted in favour of rescinding the decision, although she had not signed the motion.

It is now expected that the bylaws will be brought back to the next full council meeting in December for further discussion.

Councillors not in favour of rescinding the decision – Councillors Gage, Chris Clipson, Terry O'Grady, Lucy Campbell and Rikley Austin – were concerned that those who had signed the motion had leaked their intentions to the local press before informing the town clerk and other councillors.

Councillor O'Grady said the town clerk received the rescinding motion on October 20th but View From editor Philip Evans had tweeted about it the day before.

francesca@pemedial.co.uk

"Is there any reason he gets prior knowledge of this before we do? I think it's pretty disgraceful," he said.

The mayor said she did not know.

Poking fun at a nickname given to Councillor O'Grady and his fellow members who often vote together – the "gang of five" – he continued: "It sounds to me like a secret meeting with the 'gang of eight' and a news reporter covering that meeting."

Councillor Ellis replied: "Are we being accused of something that didn't happen?"

Councillor O'Grady: "Not at all."

Ellis: "I don't know how the news editor knew about it. Perhaps Councillor Lovell delivered a letter to the news editor and the town clerk at the same time."

O'Grady: "How convenient."

The mayor asked Councillor O'Grady not to make such comments.

Should have been expected

Councillor Lovell said: "We have had a pretty decent meeting up until now and now we're getting a little bit of innuendo which I resent very much. There's a notice of rescission here after the decision was forced through because we were short of three or four councillors. The rescinding motion should have been expected, even foreseen, and all I'm doing at the moment is moving it and ask that councillors vote on it."

Councillor Gage commented: "We talked about a lot about communication and courtesy earlier on, I share Councillor O'Grady's concerns. Anything that's dealt with in this chamber is dealt with on numbers, no chairmen have delegated powers, anything that any group votes on can be overturned on a later date by a rescinding motion by a larger group, that's the reality of our standing orders."

"But there is a little thing of common courtesy here that it was quite clear the editor of the local paper had knowledge of this prior to any of the councillors other than those who signed the motion, and I don't think that in itself is very courteous."

Councillor Anita Williams said she suspected she was responsible for informing the press as she had posted a comment on Facebook saying she expected that a rescinding motion would be made following the "huge, huge amount of controversy".

"It's a pointless discussion frankly," she continued.

Referring to Councillor Gage's statement to the press, she added: "If we're talking about communication, I don't expect to read a statement from a chairman of one of our committees only in the press. We didn't have any sight of that, that wasn't sent to us."

"I suggest we deal with this as it is and move on, I don't see any sense in throwing allegations around."

Councillor Stan Williams then tried to speak while the mayor was consulting with council officers.

"I have had my hand up for a very long time," he interjected.

The mayor replied: "I'm sorry Councillor Williams but there's a lot going on here; you are not being neglected, you are actually slowing things down."

Councillor Reynolds argued that the mayor's comments were "uncalled for" but was stopped from continuing by Councillor Holman.

■ THE rescinding motion was put forward by Councillor Owen Lovell

Councillor Stan Williams commented: "It does concern me that we are being accused of something..."

Councillor Holman: "No, let's not get into this."

Councillor Williams: "I'm entitled to answer. The point is we were accused of something. I had numerous phone calls after the vote on bylaws by people saying 'what a disaster, what are you going to do about it?' and I said 'don't worry, I will be putting in a rescinding motion', which may have been followed up by the press."

"I hate all this secrecy. I'm always straight down the line, anyone is entitled to phone me to ask a question and I will give a direct answer. What's wrong with telling somebody you're preparing a rescinding motion? The town is in absolute uproar about this."

Councillor Lovell then explained "for clarity" that he originally spoke to the town clerk about the rescinding motion on Friday, October 17th and asked that it be kept confidential. He then went to the eight councillors, finishing on the Sunday and handing in the motion to the town clerk on the Monday.

"I don't know who told the press, I don't really care," he added.

Councillors then voted to pass the rescinding motion.

■ EDITOR'S NOTE: View From editor Philip Evans knew about the rescinding motion because a comment about it was posted on Facebook by the Deputy Mayor, Councillor Anita Williams.

Payment to The Hub was 'void'

these in the council offices."

"How many other things are being paid, which shouldn't be paid?" she continued.

"I'm really concerned because, as councillors, we are ultimately all responsible for public money."

Councillor George Symonds said: "I think we can all agree this hasn't been ideal and I think good governance is paramount to this local authority. How do we move forward? Do we ask The Hub to pay it back? Do they still have the money? If they can pay it back we could potentially then give it back to them."

Councillor Gage said that all these issues and potential options would be included in the report at the next Strategy & Policy Committee meeting.

Councillor Williams commented: "In my view the payment is ultra vires because it was made without authority and that makes it void. I don't think we have any choice but to reclaim the money; it can't be remedied by being voted on in a later date.

"As unfortunate as it is, I don't think we have any choice but to call it back which is why we need to get a grant application in as soon as possible."

Councillor Gage replied: "I'm grateful to Councillor Williams and I believe she is probably right, I'm not certain which is why I've not specifically stated that, but what we will make sure is that the correct information is presented to members at the next Strategy & Policy meeting and we can resolve the matter in a way that members see fit."

EIGHTY YEARS OF BLENDING MARKED WITH NEW FLAVOURS AND FREE TEA FOR LOCAL BUSINESSES

LOCAL company Keith Spicer celebrates 80 years of tea blending and manufacturing this year with the launch of a new range of fruit, herbal and green teas from its flagship brand Dorset Tea.

The brand was created five years ago to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the company's founder Keith Spicer's blending and delivering tea to Dorset businesses on an old butcher's bike.

To mark this occasion and new product launch the Dorset Tea team is offering companies around the county the chance to win free Dorset Tea for their workers, delivered to the premises by the Dorset Tea team on their new Dorset Tea butcher's bike.

Entrants simply need to tell the Dorset Tea team what makes the perfect Dorset Tea break and enter their details on the competition page at the Dorset Tea website - www.dorsettea.co.uk

Full terms and conditions are available at the website but the closing date for entry is November 30th.

Included in the prize will be the new fruit, herbal and green tea range which comprise: Blackberry Syl-labub, Foraged Fruits, Strawberries and Cream, Wild

About Mint, Green Tea with Sunshine Lemon, Pure Green Tea, Cool Camomile and the unique herbal earl grey called The Earl of Dorset - each bringing something fresh to the Dorset Tea range

There will also be some of the delicious Dorset Tea Golden Blend tea which is already bucking the category trend with value growth of 199 per cent year on year, despite the black tea category experiencing a decline of 9.2 per cent.

Dorset Tea has also revamped its website for the launch. The new site includes an updated look and feel, as well as an eshop.

The range will be available in Waitrose from October 23rd at an RRP of £1.99 for 20 tea sachets. Single sachets will also be available for the OOH sector and the whole range will be on sale via the brand's website.

Seal pup found on beach

A SEAL pup is being nursed back to health after being abandoned on Abbotsbury beach.

The grey seal was found by fishermen on Sunday (November 23rd) in a state of dehydration but is now being looked after at West Hatch Animal Centre, near Taunton.

Roz Buckley from the centre described the seal as "skinny" as it only weighs 14kg, when young seals usually weigh around 40kg.

She said it was possible its mother was young and had ended up further along the South West coast than usual, and given birth to the pup on the beach at Abbotsbury.

The pup is said to be doing "really well" and "looking really well hydrated" and is being fed fish soup as a substitute for its mother's milk.

Once the pup weighs about 45kg it will be reintroduced to the wild off Devon.

The RSPCA said it was "very rare" to find a seal in the area as there are no nearby colonies and they are normally found off the coasts of Wales, Somerset, Devon and Cornwall.

Member of Lyme's oldest seafaring family goes digital with new website

ROY Gollop, a member of one of Lyme Regis' oldest seafaring families, has gone into partnership with an internet and marketing entrepreneur to showcase his wood carvings at www.lymebaycarvings.co.uk

Visitors to the website can browse renowned seafarer and craftsman Roy's portfolio of work and buy his wood carvings online.

Roy began his maritime career as an apprentice boat-builder in 1946 before enlisting in the Royal Marines where he was responsible for landing craft operations before becoming senior instructor of seamanship. He returned to Lyme Regis and managed the family fishing business for several years until he finally reopened the toolbox to build clinker dinghies and working boats for local people.

Now in his 80s, Roy has turned his many creative talents into producing desirable wooden carvings and sculptures. He takes his inspiration from his love of all things coastal and balances his understanding of the properties of wood with an appreciation of flowing lines and form.

Roy has developed his own style and, although he feels details are important, he believes it is essential for the warmth and beauty of the wood to be seen.

His passion for wood and the beauty he sees in his subjects enables him to dedicate the countless hours necessary to create each piece. Roy takes immense pride in his work, from the initial phase where he visualises his subject from off cuts of wood or driftwood collected from the beach at Lyme Regis, through the shaping and texturing process to the finished carving.

Roy's subjects often come from the animal kingdom where he favours birds and sea life, hoping to capture the spirit and essence of the creature in his carved creation.

Roy is passionate about keeping traditional woodworking alive and vibrant in the 21st century.

He said: "By showcasing my skills and carvings on the internet, I'm aiming to reach a wider audience, hopefully inspiring others to take on the trade."

Roy is a visiting instructor and mentor at Lyme Regis Boat Building Academy and the National Maritime Museum in Cornwall, where he passes on his extensive skills and knowledge to a new generation, preserving the art of traditional boat building for generations to come.

Plans for new gym get green light

PLANS for a new fitness centre in Uplyme Road, Lyme Regis, have been given the go ahead by the district council.

The district approved an application to change the use of Unit 2 St George's House, previously occupied by printing company Creative Solutions, to be used as a fitness centre.

Lyme Regis Town Council also raised no formal objections to the plans but were concerned over parking provision for the new fitness centre.

The application stated that parking for nine vehicles would be provided on the site and, as the facility would mainly be used out of normal working hours, the applicant expected there to be "ample parking" available elsewhere on the site of St George's House and on Uplyme Road.

The governors of the Woodroffe School, based opposite the site, raised strong objections to the plans on the grounds of road safety.

They wrote: "We have serious concerns regarding the road safety of our students and others if this application is approved. Uplyme Road is a very busy road which frequently gets congested, especially at the end of the school day when over 1,000 students and staff leave to go home. We understand there is limited parking at the rear of the building and there is certainly very little parking available on the road. We are concerned that visitors to the proposed fitness centre may park illegally which could compromise the safety of our students and which would certainly add to the congestion in this already busy area."

By FRANCESCA EVANS

francesca@pemedial.co.uk

They added that the school's own fitness facilities were open for community use out of school hours.

■ PLANS to change the Terrace shop and cafe into a restaurant has been met with mixed reactions by the public.

The application, which if approved would see the shop on Bridge Street converted into the French Lieutenant's Bistro, has received 13 responses from the public, several from nearby business owners, both objecting to and supporting the proposals.

Concerns include the disruption a restaurant would cause to neighbouring residents and the possibility of deliveries adding to traffic congestion in the area.

Light up your Christmas at the big switch-on!

DON'T miss the switching-on of Lyme Regis' spectacular Christmas lights display this Saturday (November 29th).

Father Christmas will be in his grotto at the Royal Lion Hotel on Broad Street in the afternoon, followed by a children's Christmas lantern-making workshop in the Baptist Church from 3pm. Judging on lanterns will be held at 4.30pm and the annual Christmas lantern parade will set off down Broad Street, led by Father Christmas and followed by Lyme Regis Majorettes at 5pm. The big switch-on will be held promptly at 5.15pm.

Organisers will also be unveiling a plaque dedicated to the late Barbara Austin MBE, six-times Mayor of Lyme Regis and lead fundraiser for the Christmas lights, which now have a reputation of being among the best in the region.

Crowds will then be invited to follow Father Christmas to the Cobb special surprise that will "light up your Christmas". The Luggers ukulele band will also be playing at the Cobb, where mince pies and mulled wine will be served from 6.15pm onwards and a children's lucky dip will be held.

Sir George drops into St Michael's

■ BACK IN TIME: Alan Vian dressed as Sir George Somers entertains children from St Michael's Primary School

Sir George Somers, former Mayor of Lyme Regis who went on to be the first to colonise Bermuda, dropped into St Michael's Primary School this week to tell pupils his life story.

Played by Lyme's town crier Alan Vian, Sir George arrived in Elizabethan dress and told the children about his voyage from England to the new colony of Jamestown, Virginia, as admiral of the Virginia Company in 1609.

During the voyage, Sir George's ship the Sea Venture, hit a ferocious storm but the experienced seafarer managed to steer the boat onto the shores of Bermuda.

The islands had previously been discovered by the Spanish but no one had ever settled there, superstitiously believing it to be the "Isle of Devils".

Sir George claimed the islands for the King and Bermuda is now the oldest remaining Overseas British Territory.

Within a year he and his crew had built two new ships, the Deliverance and the Patience, and they were able to continue their journey to Jamestown, where the new colony had been all but wiped out through starvation.

On returning to Bermuda to collect more supplies, Sir George died of food poisoning. His heart was buried on the island and his body bought back to the Cobb and later buried in Whitchurch Canonorum, near Charmouth.

Lyme Regis and St George's in Bermuda have been twinned since the 1990s and the talk at the school was part of a project being led by the twinning association to encourage more young people to take an interest in the historical links between the two communities.

The children at St Michael's have already exchanged letters with children from St George's and now plan to send them a Christmas present.

Sailing club celebrate season at prizegiving dinner

LYME Regis Sailing Club's annual dinner and prize-giving was held on Saturday night at the golf club. Retiring commodore David Beer welcomed 80 members including his guests, Mayor of Lyme Regis and sailing club secretary, Councillor Sally Holman, and accompanied by Mayoress Jane Whittington; and Chris Turner with his wife Kathryn.

Chris, who grew up at the Cobb, is well-known to members regularly returns to the club. His first boat building business was launched in Coombe Street and he now runs a successful, innovative enterprise from Newcastle in a highly competitive market.

Chris is currently Flying 15 World Champion for the second time and will be vying for a third title next year. His brother Jim has moved to New Zealand and sails in the Americas Cup team.

The mayor commended the retiring commodore on his commitment to the club and spoke of her 50 years as a club member, including watching today's keen youth members follow in the footsteps of Chris and his brother, Allan Tyler and Tim Parsons. She then proposed a toast to the club.

Council must be 'truly transparent'

TOWN councillors should be "truly transparent" with their colleagues from the district and county authorities, one member has said.

Councillor Cheryl Reynolds argued that district and county councillors representing Lyme Regis should be included in all correspondence between the three authorities and should be aware of everything going on at town council level.

Councillor Reynolds made her argument following discussions on a change to the council's standing orders.

District and county councillor Daryl Turner, Councillor Reynolds' brother, pointed out several weeks ago that he had not been receiving agendas for town council meetings, and that the council had dropped its former standing order that district and county councillors should be copied in in all correspondence between the authorities.

Councillors agreed that district and county councillors should receive agendas, but instead of reinstating the rule about correspondence they agreed to invite their colleagues to regular meetings, as they thought commercially sensitive issues should not always be shared between authorities.

Speaking at last week's meeting, Councillor Turner said he thought he should have been consulted about possible meetings before councillors decided on it, and added that both the county and district had reviewed officer/member protocol to ensure all correspondence between authorities was copied to members.

"It seems sensible to continue what has been in place and working well for many years," he continued.

By FRANCESCA EVANS
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

Councillor Reynolds said the argument that some things should be kept from district and county councillors "falls completely on its backside" while district councillor George Symonds was also sitting on the town council.

"This cannot be used as a fair argument, nothing can or should be kept private from our elected members," she added.

"Let's show everyone we have nothing to hide and everything to gain by being truly transparent with all our elected members."

Councillors agreed to go ahead with their decision to invite district and county representatives to regular meetings.

■ A CAR smashed into the window of the shop Love & Wonder in Broad Street on Tuesday afternoon.

Staff from Lyme Bay Dentistry at the bottom of Broad Street were first on the scene, along with local fire chief Virgil Turner, and tried to resuscitate a man unconscious in the doorway of the neighbouring Tenovus charity shop.

Police, three ambulances and two fire engines from Lyme Regis and Charmouth also attended and the road was closed. A screen was erected in front of the shop while crews treated the man.

The circumstances of the accident or the man's condition were not known at the time of going to press.

Controlled explosion on Church Cliff Beach

BOMB disposal experts from the Royal Navy were called to Lyme Regis on Saturday afternoon after a suspicious item was found on the beach.

A member of the public reported the item, which was later found to be a phosphorous flare, on Church Cliff Beach to the police at 12.16pm.

The area was cordoned off while the bomb disposal team carried out a controlled explosion, which could be heard around the town. There were no injuries and the cordon was lifted at 4.30pm.

B Sharp know how to party!

Photos by MAISE HILL

THE Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis was packed with a full house on Saturday night as B Sharp celebrated another music filled year with a party.

This annual event is a chance for the young people from the Lyme-based organisation to share some of the music they have been writing at the regular Tuesday night project at The Hub youth club, as well as a chance to party and socialise without the pressure of a professional concert.

As the lights came down in the main auditorium, Harry Eastwood opened the show on the grand piano with three pieces that showed his great technical ability and musicianship.

For the following hour and a half, four B Sharp groups from The Hub Jam Sessions played their own new music composed and rehearsed this autumn.

Organiser Pete Wild commented: "Every bit of those songs are written by our participants with the help of our music leaders and young music leaders, and the longer we work like this the more depth and quality is in the music."

As well as group performance by B Sharp members on the main stage, there were also solo performances in the upstairs bar.

"We like to try and remember all the great things we do over a year and putting a small acoustic stage in the bar was a tribute to our Busking Festival", added Pete.

This year's guest band Mr Jean, a four-piece whose members all have strong links with B Sharp, topped the bill and had everyone on the dance floor.

"We are so lucky that some of our original B Sharp members are now professional musicians with a great new band," continued Pete.

"As well as playing on the night they have all been involved with teaching or mentoring at the music sessions at The Hub."

The audience agreed with many regular supporters claiming this was the best year yet for B Sharp's musical output.

The Hub Jam Sessions now attract 45 young people every week and have a team of music leaders to help facilitate composition and performance.

Pete commented: "All over, our party is a chance to share amazing new music, remember the good times we have had, thank some folks for their continued support and then to get down on the dance floor."

"The wonderful Mr Jean were the perfect band to end the evening and a huge thanks goes to them for bringing the party to a head with their cool tight grooves, great humour and frankly incredible fashion sense."

News from
LymeNet

WE'RE all thinking about Christmas as this time of year, some with dread, some with happy anticipation. It's a time for families, but also that difficult exchange of cards and presents.

Maybe LymeNet can help you a little. Before Christmas, many people wish they could save money by shopping online, wish they could Skype members of their family who live far away, want to be able to e-mail friends. Perhaps you have this year's photos on your camera and don't how to download them.

And after Christmas there might be that new piece of tech that someone has kindly given you as a present but you don't know where to start. Maybe a new camera, phone, tablet computer, Kindle, digital photo frame?

LymeNet has received funding from the Dorset Community Fund to work with people both in Charmouth and Lyme Regis libraries to give free one-to-one assistance, whether they are absolute beginners or stuck on something a little more advanced. The library may seem a strange place but we think it's more friendly and familiar to many people who may need our help.

We work with absolute beginners everyday so please don't feel shy to ask.

Come and see us in the libraries. On Tuesday mornings (10am to 12noon) we are in Lyme Regis Library, and on Thursdays (10am to 12noon) in Charmouth Library. If it's something quick you want to ask you can just drop in, but if it'll take a bit longer please arrange an appointment either through the relevant library or with us directly at LymeNet by calling 01297 444570.

And if you want something more advanced or structured we, of course, also run accredited training courses. Maybe a new skill would be a good New Year's resolution, or maybe someone in your family would appreciate a voucher for a course (what about learning to use Photoshop, or building a website or starting a blog about their hobby)?

Parishes join together for pilot lengthsman scheme

UPLYME parish council has joined forces with Axmouth, Combyne and Rousdon, and Sidmouth to commission lengthsman work under the Parishes Together scheme, which encouraged communities to work together.

The councils for each parish received joint funding from East Devon District Council to pilot the project and have also received extra funding from Devon County Council's highways department to employ their own contractor, rather than relying on the county-provided service.

Sidmouth town clerk Christopher Holland said: "Similar schemes in other parishes have shown that if the work done is locally-controlled it's much more effective, so we now hope to reap the benefits ourselves."

"We will be able to get the most important jobs done quickly, and with local knowledge of the roads, we're in a much better position to do this than the county's contractors".

Uplyme parish clerk Lois Wakeman added: "In days gone by, each parish had a lengthsman who was responsible for keeping ditches, drains and road edges clear of weeds and debris. This project hopes to return our currently neglected rural lanes to a much better condition, by employing a local company under the direction of each council."

"If this pilot is successful, we hope to continue with council tax-payer funding in future. As readers may know, Devon Highways has to find huge savings next year, and more and more of this sort of work will have to be done at the parish or town level!"

Anyone interested in tendering for this work has until December 3rd. A specification can be downloaded from Uplyme Parish Council's website or call the clerk on 01297 444707 for more details.

nesses are family owned and run and pride themselves on offering a friendly welcome and good old-fashioned service, providing all your everyday needs at very reasonable prices. If you can't find what you need, just ask and they

Now's the time to take a dip!

LYME Regis is well-known for its idyllic seafront, quaint and independent shops, rich history and heritage as part of the Jurassic Coast... but perhaps less obvious is the fantastic watersports conditions that the town regularly receives throughout the autumnal months.

From September through to November Britain sees more frequent low pressure systems sweeping across the North Atlantic, which pushes the big rolling waves and strong winds into Lyme Bay.

Despite the stronger weather, waters in Lyme Regis are surprisingly warm during the autumn, rarely dropping below 15 degrees in September and October and rarely below 12 degrees in November. This mix of strong wind and waves as well as inviting water temperatures makes autumn the perfect time for those keen on watersports.

Autumn 2014 has seen some of the best action of recent years in the bay with conditions attracting well-known, high-status athletes such as Andy King, a professional windsurfer who lives in Cornwall but travelled up just to make the most of a perfect storm in Lyme Regis, showing off big jumps of well over 20 feet.

But it's not just the pros that have been enjoying the autumn conditions. Many local windsurfers, kitesurfers, paddle boarders and surfers have all been out in the wind and waves.

With the winter approaching you may think it's time to pack your wetsuit away but staff at Boylo's Watersports on Marine Parade are encouraging enthusiasts to get in the water.

Jake Patrick from Boylo's said: "The technology in wetsuits and accessories is so good now that you can comfortably enjoy the sea all year round!"

For more information on the watersports available in Lyme Regis visit Boylo's Watersports on Marine Parade.

Band celebrate 80th birthday ahead of busy festive season

LYME Regis Town Band recently celebrated the 80th birthday of their long-standing librarian John Case.

Mr Case, one of the founder members of the band which was re-formed in the 1980s, was presented with a special birthday cake by band members, iced with a photo of himself.

Although he retired from playing role music some years ago, John has proved an invaluable band librarian, a vital task which he performs with great efficiency and understanding and one which is greatly appreciated by all band members.

John was presented with his cake by engagements secretary and former band chairman, Val Mahoney (pictured above), who was responsible for making the arrangements.

With the Christmas season fast approaching, the band will shortly enter its busiest period of the year. Its engagements include playing carols in residential homes, in Broad Street, Lyme Regis, and at Tesco in Seaton.

The highlight of the season will be the annual Christmas concert on Friday, December 12th in the Woodmead Halls which will again be free this year.

Final countdown to pudding pandemonium!

FINAL preparations are being made for this year's Lyme Regis Christmas Pudding Race - the town's wackiest festive event being held on Saturday, December 6th in aid of Cancer Research UK.

Mascots at this year's race will be favourite characters from the smash hit film "Frozen", Princesses Elsa and Anna. Due to unforeseen circumstances, Olaf the snowman will no longer be attending the event and organisers would like to apologise for any disappointment caused.

Children (and grown ups too!) will have the chance to meet and greet Lyme's very own Elsa and Anna before the festive obstacle race gets underway on Marine Parade.

Lyme's wackiest festive event, being staged for the third year by the local branch of Cancer Research UK, will be held from 12noon to 2pm and other special guests will include Father Christmas, who will arrive on a sleigh pulled by real-life reindeer before handing out gifts in a Christmas pudding-shaped Santa's grotto for £3 per child.

Other attractions will include festive face painting and a Christmas memory tree, with those attending encouraged to pay a donation to Cancer Research UK to write a message to a lost loved one and hang it on the tree. Children will also be able to post their letters to Father Christmas in a special letterbox with a response guaranteed before Christmas Day.

Live entertainment will include Christmas tunes from Wessex Star Disco and "Merrily On High", Lyme's festive trio made up of local singers Kelly Apps, Jayne Saunders and Nicky Sweetland, who will also be leading a Zumba warm-up to get participants pumping before the race itself.

The race itself will be held at 1pm and will see teams of six compete for the coveted Christmas Pudding Race trophy, currently held by Boylos Christmas Elves for two years running. Participants in fancy dress will have to negotiate a Christmas-theme obstacle race while carrying a Christmas pudding, which they also have to build a Mr Potato Head face on around the route. There will also be a prize for the best dressed team.

It's not too late to enter your team. Simply download an entry form from the website and hand it in to the View From newspapers offices at St Michael's Business Centre, along with the entry fee of £60 (£10 per team member). Team members are also asked to try and raise as much sponsorship for Cancer Research UK as they can.

In an addition to this year's programme, there will also be a Chase the Pud Race for all ages, with an entrance fee of £3 for adults and £1 for children. All those taking part must be dressed as Father Christmas, with a limited number of children's (£2) and adult's (£3) costumes available from the Lyme Regis branch of Cancer Research UK for those who don't have their own.

Everyone taking part will receive a medal, the winner of the race will get a special trophy and an additional £25 if they can catch the pudding, which will be given a 20 second head start.

Contrasting techniques in double demonstration for local art society

THIS month saw two excellent demonstrations given to Lyme Regis Art Society.

On November 11th John Hoar, a well-known watercolour artist, produced an evocative roadside scene after heavy rain. Beautiful washes loosely layered across the paper threw highlights into strong relief whilst stippled bands of colour formed with a drier brush added texture to the rain-drenched verges.

As a complete contrast, the following week brought Michael Lawes from North Devon to demonstrate his meticulous style of pastel work.

Using a variety of pastels, from the soft Unison brand for wide areas to the harder Conte sticks for drawing in detail, Michael usually pastels over a water-coloured picture but for his demonstration worked straight onto steel blue Canson pastel paper.

He does a drawing on different paper, working at it until the structure is correct before transferring it onto the pastel paper using Trace Down carbon paper. The advantage is that the original drawing remains should he want to start again. This method gives him structure but it is his skill with pastels that creates the atmosphere.

Starting a picture of Appledore Quays, Michael laid in a blue-violet sky with a Unison pastel before picking out the houses in detail with a white Conte pencil, replacing greys with dark blues and violets in shadowy areas. Each area had three tones for highlights, middle ground and shadows and each used pastel stick went onto a tin tray to prevent muddles.

Horizontal streaks of blue covered the water area before soft white house reflections added depth to the scene. As final touches, boats were added along the quay wall with three moored in the harbour, their sides and sterns catching the sunlight.

Michael used Schmincke white pastel as it is brighter than other makes although as a final touch he used a Conte stick to draw, freehand, the thin vertical masts of the moored boats. The end result was a really beautiful depiction of the harbour.

The group's demonstrations are held on alternate Tuesday afternoons in the Woodmead Halls from 2pm to 4pm with four workshops a year at Lyme Regis Football Club.

The next meeting will be the annual general meeting on December 2nd when Linda White will give an illustrated talk on artist Samuel Parker.

Annual subscription costs £22 and potential new members and visitors are welcome. For further information contact secretary Sheila Stratton on 01297 445464.

Photos reveal history of Exmouth Docks

MEMBERS of Lyme Bay Photographic Club enjoyed an illustrated talk on the history of the Exmouth Docks by fellow member Alan Humphries.

Not only had Alan been employed at the docks for 30 years as a broker, but he now lived in Exmouth so is very familiar with the area. He obviously loved his work there and this was certainly impressed on the audience.

Alan illustrated his talk with black and white slides which he had taken over the years. Many were taken from above, as he was able to get to the top of the grain silos to witness the loading and unloading.

There were ships coming and going from all over the world and Alan was still in touch with many of their crews. The cargos were various and mainly related to the agricultural industry. Members said it was amazing to see what was achieved in such a confined space.

Of course, the day came when it all had to cease and Alan's slide show reverted to colour to see what the port looked like today. The ferry to Starcross still runs today from the same quay.

The club's next meeting will be on December 5th at the Uplyme Village Hall for the annual competition against members of Chard Camera Club.

For further details on joining the club contact chairman John Wallis on 01297 444773 or visit the club's website at www.lymebayphotographicclub.org

Town Mill hosting two varied art exhibitions

THE Town Mill in Lyme Regis is currently hosting an exhibition of work by several artists belonging to the Town Mill Arts Group in its Courtyard Gallery.

The exhibition displays a wide variety of techniques and styles and, due to the level of interest it has caused, it has now been extended to December 3rd.

This is a good opportunity for the artists of the guild to work together and to see how fellow members are developing and exploring different ideas and ways of interpreting their subject matter, loosely themed as "autumn".

The exhibition is open daily from 10am until 4.30pm with free admission.

The Town Mill Malthouse is currently holding an exhibition of work by Stephen Collins entitled "Meandering", which will also run until December 3rd.

Stephen commented: "What I have learnt of painting and drawing has been gleaned from the doing of it and looking at the work of artists past and present."

"I paint my life. I enjoy the way things jostle and intermingle on my kitchen table. Marmalade, marmite, old wrinkled apple, water, dinner plate and discarded glasses."

"I love the haphazard placement, the spatial relationships, everything left without thought, just used. This is the way I paint.

"I believe a painting reflects who you are - not because you are interesting or special, but because you are all you have, so for better or for worse, speak your piece."

"When painting, your eye sees, your mind interprets and your hand runs its own sweet path. If you can stand back and allow it all too happen without dictating or fear, you are fortunate. The reward has been in the doing."

"If others find any value in what you have done, then you are blessed indeed."

The exhibition is open daily from 10am until about 4.30pm with free admission.

Can we know councillors' political parties at election?

■ AT the next town council election it would be helpful if the candidates would state the political parties to which they belong.

If they do not belong to a national party, or are not sympathetic to one, would they please tell us the grouping to which they attract themselves as independents?

To claim that they work in the best interests of the town tells me little and does not distinguish one candidate from another.

The councillors give freely of the time and work hard. I am grateful to them but it would be helpful to know where they are going and what they are aiming for.

Charmouth Fayre Committee folds

THE organising committee of the annual Charmouth Fayre have said it is "with much regret" that they have decided to close down with immediate effect after more than 20 years, meaning there will be no fayre in 2015.

Committee chairman Peter Noel said: "All assets will be passed to the Council in accordance with the constitution."

"Before the annual general meeting in October we delivered a letter into every home in Charmouth asking for people to join the committee and bring fresh ideas for the future. Sadly, we received just two replies with suggestions for the future but no commitment to help.

"We have, as a committee, tried over the last couple of years to bring new people on board but with very little success."

"We have thoroughly enjoyed our time running the fayre and in general everybody in the village has been very supportive on the day so it is extremely sad to say goodbye. A huge thank you must go to all the people who have helped us over the years and our apologies for not being able to continue."

"We hope it will be resurrected in the future."

ONE of the joys in Lyme Regis is the huge variety of events. This last weekend saw St Michael's Church and School Christmas bazaar at the Woodmead Halls and Lyme Bay Chorale performing.

The bazaar was opened by the mayor who also presented the prizes for the best dressed bauble competition! Children's games challenged our skills and revealed a competitive edge between the vicar and the headmistress, we were both overtaken by one of the dads - a replay is booked for next year.

Very different skills were exhibited in the ambitious programme of Lyme Bay Chorale. We are so proud that organist Alex Davies is musical director and his ambition to provide a forum for excellent music was realised. Professional chamber orchestra and soloist Phillippa Hyde together with the choir and local soloists gave the packed church a treat, both profoundly moving and uplifting. Thanks to all who supported both events.

Anyone wanting ideas for flower arrangements this Christmas to decorate your table or home should get along to the flower arranging demonstration on Thursday afternoon. Starting at 2.30pm at the Woodmead Halls with the inspirational Pam Burge. Tickets are £6 on the door and include refreshments and all the arrangements are raffled.

Next Saturday 29th, there's a Christmas bazaar at Charmouth in St Andrews Community Hall, Lower Sea Lane, from 10am to 1.30pm with a soup and bread lunch available to keep you going! And you might go on to a pre-Christmas sale in aid of the Friends of St Gabriels, Morcombelake, at the James Hargreaves Hall from 11.30am to 2pm.

After so much shopping, talking and eating, how about preparing for Christmas with an Advent Service? The Golden Cap Team has their service for the area at St Andrews, Charmouth, at 3pm. An opportunity to reflect on the purpose and hope of Christmas, the coming of Jesus Christ. Please remember you can look at forthcoming events and church services on the websites of the churches of Lyme Regis. Grace and peace in these last days of November.

Dorset Scouser

A LOCAL photographer has created a Dorset calendar which is taking the county by storm! Stephen Banks has been photographing night skies in Dorset for three years. His 2015 'Dorset's Dark Skies' calendar is the culmination of many late nights' work.

The calendar features iconic Dorset landmarks, such as Durdle Door and Portland Bill, surrounded by the night sky and the Milky Way. He says that the images are "Dorset as you've never seen it before."

"It takes a lot of perseverance and quite a lot of stamina to get the shots required. The Milky Way is most visible in the sky during the height of summer, when we have shorter nights. Most of the images in this calendar were taken in the early hours of the morning."

"You also need to have the right conditions. I need the clearest nights, with no clouds or haze present, and no moon."

"We are lucky here in Dorset because there are no cities or motorways, so some parts of the county experience very little light pollution. This is essential for good stargazing conditions. Couple that with the wonderful scenery of Dorset, and you're on to a winner!"

The calendar is available from Bridport Post Office, Cafe Ann Day in Beaminster, Highland's End Holiday Park in Eype, Winfrith Village Stores in Winfrith Newburgh and The Exchange in Sturminster Newton, as well as on Stephen's website, www.dorsetscouser.com. They are £10 each, making them a great stocking filler for anyone looking for a unique gift this Christmas.

Delivery Folk

YES, Christmas is coming, the goose is getting fat – and how on earth are we going to get that partridge in its pear tree safely delivered to Auntie Mabel?

Let alone little Sebastian's vintage Rolls Royce pedal car and cousin Susie's grumpy frog garden statue!

All those witty and unusual presents that seemed such a good idea at the time, can pose a problem when it comes to making sure they arrive under the tree by Christmas morning.

Santa's elves know the answer – put the job on www.deliveryfolk.com

Log the details, find a carrier who is already making that trip and who can use their van, truck, car or even sleigh to make your deliveries for you.

Or if you are always making journeys and would like some extra cash to fill the Christmas coffers, register as a carrier on Delivery Folk's easy-to-use website.

That way anyone who needs to move seasonal stuff from A to B will be able to find you easily and get in touch.

At Delivery Folk we know that not everything fits in an envelope or a nice tidy parcel, or even a stocking.

So how cool would it be to find someone who's ready to load up a festive Froggy and escort him safely to his new home, sort out a price and make friendly arrangements for collection and delivery that suit everyone?

That's one more thing ticked off the Christmas to-do list then, thanks to Delivery Folk – what a cracker of an idea!

Symondsbury Estate

Symondsbury Estate Christmas Market - Back by popular demand!

AFTER a very successful and well attended Christmas Market this time last year Symondsbury Estate is repeating it again - only this year it's bigger and better with over 140 stalls.

The Christmas Market is the most traditional of its kind in the area and will be full of Christmas cheer! Roasted chestnuts, locally produced food such as chutneys, cheeses, meats, a vast array of unique hand crafted items as well as vintage and upcycled items that will make the perfect Christmas gifts.

A large Christmas tree has been located from the woods on Symondsbury Estate - it was delivered last week and now has pride of place in the centre of the main area at Manor Yard.

The market starts at 2pm and finishes at 7pm. At 2.45pm Symondsbury School will be entertaining us with some Christmas carols, Santa and some of his elves will arrive into the yard just before 4pm via horse and cart and children can visit him in his grotto from 4pm until 5pm.

There will be outside food and drink outlets to include mulled wine, cider, burgers as well as a fully licensed bar in the Tithe Barn.

Symondsbury Store will be open - showcasing its newly created extension of beautifully crafted gifts, cards and decorations.

There will be outside food outlets as well as a special Christmas market menu in Symondsbury Kitchen - which will be open throughout the day.

Old Times will also be open for those of you that like rummaging through vintage & retro items.

We look forward to welcoming you all to Manor Yard for the annual Symondsbury Estate Christmas Market!

Sunny Days Nursery

DIRECTORS, Joy and David Scadden, launched Sunny Days Nurseries in 1995 and ever since they have been dedicated to the provision of quality childcare for West Dorset families, and have not lost sight of their initial desire for the very best early years for children, and peace of mind for parents.

In 2004 Joy and David opened Sunny Days Bridport, in an original Georgian Coach House, in the heart of Bridport town centre. It was then a well-known local pub called The Lily where David's late Uncle John a Master Butcher in Bridport used to have a pint of Palmers Ale and play darts regularly on a Friday night. The pub closed in the early 1990s which David re-designed and fully refurbished into a modern children's nursery.

Sunny Days Bridport has bright, colourful play rooms, a cosy cot room, a dedicated dining room, and large all weather indoor and outdoor playgrounds. The staff are all fully trained and are dedicated to the tender loving care and early education of babies from 3 months up to 5 years getting the children ready for school.

Sunny Days Nursery in Bridport will be open to the public for Bridport's Late Night Shopping on Wednesday 3rd December. There will be a free crèche for 2 to 5 year olds on the night, as well as nappy changing facilities and refreshments, and staff will be on hand to show people around the nursery.

Directors David and Joy Scadden (pictured) say, "Sunny Days Bridport achieved a GOOD Ofsted rating and the staff team are really proud and keen to show parents and families our fabulous nursery and the fantastic services we are providing for children. Please drop in to see for yourself".

Molly's Den

IT CERTAINLY feels like winter outside now and that can only mean one thing, Christmas is sneaking up on us again. This is such an exciting time of year, where shopping for gifts is a real event and giving is just as much fun as receiving, especially when you know you've found something really special. Molly's Den Emporiums are all ready for the season with over one thousand traders all making the effort to deck their units out with fantastic items perfect for presents! The enormous vintage, antique and retro emporiums are a fantastic shopping experience at any time of the year but with the extra dazzle of Christmas and the real joy of having something to shop for means that a trip to one of the dens is an amazing day out!

The warehouses are spread along the South Coast, with bases in Bridport, Bournemouth, New Milton and Winchester and each space is entirely unique. Filled with countless items from large furniture to tiny collectables, there is everything you could possibly need to get your vintage fix. Not only this, but every den has its own quirky café serving a delicious selection of breakfast, brunch, lunch and afternoon tea as well as changing daily specials and home made cakes! The cafes are a great stop after some retail therapy and have also embraced the festive spirit with some tasty Christmas treats on offer. Always family friendly, you can also find kids play areas at every emporium so everyone is happy with the trip!

Not only will you have a great day at the massive dens, your friends and family will be over the moon with all the wonderfully unique gifts you discovered for them there. And if there's simply too much to choose from, gift vouchers can also be bought from every den so they can discover it all for themselves!

Your guide to local live music

Bridport's own roots master teams with top drummer

BAND ON! STOMPIN DAVE JOINS FORCES WITH SAM KELLY

STOMPIN' Dave teams up with drummer Sam Kelly for a feast of blues, boogie and banjo at Evershot Village Hall on Friday, December 5th.

Described as "One of the world's greatest performers" by Maverick Magazine, Bridport's own Stompin' Dave is perhaps best known round these parts for his madcap hillbilly dancing and award winning banjo picking. But Dave has these last few years begun making waves on the UK's blues scene. This year Dave was nominated for a British Blues Award in the acoustic act category.

Back in 2000 Dave joined Bournemouth based blues band The Producers, UK Blues Band of the Year award winners 1998-2001. Alongside Dave's adventures in bluegrass music Dave has found time to release ten blues albums and has made regular performances at various blues festivals and clubs. This year Dave earned an unprecedented sixth consecutive invitation to the legendary Boogaloo Blues Festival on the Isle Of Wight. "a master of all kinds of American Roots music...a formidable musician and a true original." The Daily Telegraph.

London based Sam Kelly has been voted into Blues In Britain magazine Gallery of the Greats, as a five-times winner of the UK Drummer of the Year award. Sam has recorded albums with Gary Moore, Ruby Turner, Rory McLeod and Stan Webb. Over the years Sam has performed with such well known artists as Dr. John, Ben E. King, Robert Plant, The Foundations, Chaka Khan, Billy Ocean, and Michelle Shocked among many, many others.

Stompin' Dave

Sam recently performed with Paul Jones, Imelda May, Andy Fairweather Low and Chris Barber. Jules Bushell formerly with the Thunderbridge Bluegrass Boys will be joining Sam and Dave on bass.

This event is promoted by the popular Band On committee. There will be a licensed bar serving draught real ale, draught lager, scrumpy, a range of wines, spirits and soft drinks. Doors open at 7.30pm, the music and dancing will start at 8pm. For more information you can call 01935 83580. Entry is £10 on the door, advance etickets at £8 are available from the website www.stompin-store.com/etickets

A WANDER AND A WONDER

DORCHESTER Community Choir and friends will be performing a special fundraising concert this Saturday, November 29th.

'A Wander and a Wonder' is a special seasonal concert at the Dorchester Community Church, Acland Road, and will take place from 3pm.

The concert is aimed to be like the Choir's very own 'Live Aid' event, with a wonderful range of local professional and young musicians. It will include something to suit all tastes, ranging from jazz to classical, brass to folk, with some Christmassy, some non-Christmassy - as a gentle wander into Advent!

The line up includes three local professional musicians: Trevor Whiting, Jon Valender, Paul Farrall (jazz, classical, brass); two consultants and a junior doctor from DCH on fiddle, piano and cello; soloists from Thomas Hardy, Beaminstor, Southill and Frome Valley schools; and Dorchester Community Church choir (who are hosting the concert).

The concert will also feature a children's choir formed specifically for the event via YouTube. It is hoped this will be the birth of Dorchester Community Youth Choir.

Entry is free, and there will be free coffee and mince pies in the interval, with a retiring collection in aid of the Ebola Crisis Appeal at the end of the concert.

WEST GALLERY MUSIC CONCERTS

WEST Gallery Music is the name describing the harmony songs that used to be sung in English country churches from the 18th century onwards, usually accompanied by a band of musicians playing fiddle, serpent, trombone etc. The musicians and singers from the village would sit in what was known as the West Gallery in the church. The music was vibrant, full of life and is accessible today (as it was in its day) to all singers and instrumentalists, from amateur to professional. A number of rural churches in the South Dorset Ridgeway area have retained their West Galleries, and, as part of the Heritage lottery funded South Dorset ridgeway Landscape Partnership projects, this style of music is being recreated by Artsreach with the help of a choir of local singers and musicians, led by folk musicians Tim Laycock and Phil Humphries.

The Ridgeway Singers and Band have explored carols from the Puddletown and Pulham manuscripts, and rehearsed two newly composed carols inspired by the South Dorset Ridgeway, and will present them as part of a special programme in two concert this winter at St Mary's, Puddletown on Sunday, November 30th, and St Swithun's, North Allington on Sunday, December 14th. Both performances are at 3.30pm.

ICE AGE ART

British Museum Curator to give talk at Dorset County Museum

IN 2013 the British Museum staged a unique exhibition of Ice Age Art, created between 40,000 and 10,000 years ago. It presented masterpieces of sculpture, ceramics, drawing and personal ornaments from all over Europe. These striking objects are now the subject of a fascinating talk at Dorset County Museum by the exhibition's curator, Jill Cook.

Jill is a Senior Curator and Deputy Keeper of the Department of Prehistory & Europe at The British Museum. She is an archaeologist whose interest in archaeology began in Dorset as a teenager when she volunteered on Roman villa excavations at Dewlish. At university the subject of her dissertation was Edward Cunnington and his excavations of Dorset barrows. Since then, she has specialised in the deeper history of much earlier periods, investigating the archaeology of human evolution, as well as the history of archaeology.

During her talk on Ice Age art at Dorset County Museum on 5 December, Jill Cook will show some of the masterpieces from the exhibition such as the British Museum's mammoth ivory sculpture of a pair of swimming reindeer, plus the oldest known sculptures, drawings and musical instruments from Europe. Far from being simple objects from a remote time, Jill will explain how these works of art are important clues about the evolution of our brains and the development of modern human societies.

The talk will start at 7.30pm and entry is free. The doors will open at 7pm and all donations to cover costs will be welcome. For further information visit www.dorsetcountymuseum.org or telephone the Museum on 01305 262735.

Paddington Bear at The Teddy Bear Museum

TO celebrate Paddington Bear's launch in to the film world next weekend the Teddy Bear Museum in Dorchester has a special display on the world's most famous bear that brings together some iconic examples of Paddington.

Paddington, the duffel coated, marmalade loving bear was born in 1958 from the imagination of Michael Bond. Since then, Paddington has become a great favourite with children world wide selling over 35 million copies of Paddington books in more than 40 languages. The story books of the exploits of this bear from Peru have never cease to thrill and amuse children.

In 1975 the first animated tale of Paddington was shown on television by the BBC. Now finally Paddington has made it to the big screen with the release of the new star-studded film on November 28th.

To celebrate this release the Dorset Teddy Bear Museum has a special Paddington Display which features some exquisite Paddington's, some of the first Paddington's created as a soft toy in 1972 by Gabrielle Designs, often limited editions, alongside others including a special Steiff produced to mark his 50th Birthday. As well as many different examples of Paddington Bear he is surrounded by much of his memorabilia including books, toys, games and posters. Keeping Paddington company are some lovely examples of rare Aunt Lucy bears.

Marking the occasion the Dorset Teddy Bear Museum is offering half price admissions if you mention the secret phrase 'Marmalade Sandwiches', as well as 20% off all Paddington Merchandise.

Paddington is, quite simply, a national treasure and a firm favourite by the many visitors to the Teddy Bear Museum and a great friend of all the other bears – they love listening to his tales! The Teddy Bear Museum is situated in the centre of Dorchester and is open daily from 10am to 4pm. Visit the website at www.teddybearmuseum.co.uk for more details.

Christmas at Bridport Arts Centre

THIS December at Bridport Arts Centre have a fantastically festive programme of events to get you in the mood for Christmas. Some highlights include The Met Opera's performance of The Barber of Seville, the musical performance A Victorian Christmas, Miracle Theatre's Dr Livingstone I Presume and comedy from Rory McGrath and Philip Pope.

Be transported to New York's world-famous Metropolitan Opera House on Tuesday, December 9th with to see The Barber of Seville. The Met's production of Rossini's classic comedy stars Isabel Leonard as the feisty Rosina, Lawrence Brownlee as her conspiring flame, and Christopher Maltman as the endlessly resourceful and charming barber himself. Why not make a festive evening of it, and enjoy a delicious two-course opera supper prepared in the Art Garden Café. Advance booking is essential for these meals as they are very popular and availability is limited.

On Friday, December 12th you are invited to congregate for a charming morning of music and entertainment, sampling the simple delights that our ancestors would have known with A Victorian Christmas. You can expect a morning of music, song, stories and drama from the time of Dickens and Hardy. There'll be some of your favorite carols with song sheets provided and some more obscure festive songs from the 19th century, as well as a festive masked play.

On Friday evening Miracle Theatre return with a brand new show mixing caustic comedy, seedy songs and second-rate spectacle with dubious magic, dodgy ventriloquism and breathtaking burlesque the show will genuinely appeal to all ages! Doctor Livingstone, I Presume is the epic story of one man's obsession to discover the source of the Nile and transform an entire continent single-handed – and of a woman left behind.

Join Rory McGrath and Philip Pope on Saturday, December 13th for Bridge Over Troubled Water, an evening of wit, elegance and clever musical pastiche (but don't worry, there's also silliness and filth). This is the show where music and comedy meet, have a few drinks, fight, then stagger home singing hits from the 60s. It promises to have something to offend everybody, a perfect alternative to traditional festive entertainment

The Barber of Seville
Tuesday, December 9th

On Wednesday, December 17th the angelic Charlie Bicknell will host a completely unpredictable, mad capped evening of festive frivolity, aided and abetted by the cherubic Louise Innes and accompanied by the Godlike David Harrod. 'Defrosted; A Christmas Caper' promises to present Disney classics as you have never seen before, with sadistic Sugar Plum faeries, operatic rock and a touching gay Eskimo! This promises to be a truly unique and entertaining evening!

Other highlights include music from the Trio Hysteria and the Freedance Choir, Classic Greshwin, music from Land of the Giants and the Wessex Military Band.

Why not have Christmas drinks with friends in our bar in the interval of a performance rather than in a pub this December, or do something a bit different and bring the office Christmas party to a show. Everyone at the Arts centre wishes the lovely people of Bridport a healthy and happy Christmas and are looking forward to an exciting new programme of events in 2015.

Welcome To My World

Stephen K. Amos at the Electric Palace this Saturday

FRESH from yet another Edinburgh Fringe run, plus touring Australia, New Zealand and the UK and recording Life: An Idiot's Guide and What Does The K Stand For (BBC Radio 4), feel-good maestro Stephen K Amos hits the road with his brand new show Welcome To My World.

Known for his warm-hearted wit and room-filling effervescence, Stephen puts the cha-cha in charm and the pow! in polite. But some may have noticed that behind that crisp 'n' clean exterior dwells an altogether different animal. He's a deep-thinking, problem-spotting and question-asking sort of gentleman, and Mr Amos believes the time is nigh to invite the public to meet this inner friend of his. He's been expecting you.

So is it no more Mr Nice Guy? No of course not, not on your nelly. But Stephen's got some questions and concerns, such as 'why is the world reacting to Russia's Ukraine invasion as it is?' and 'why are people really voting for UKIP?', and to be honest is getting a little peeved that people in 2014 are still reluctant to talk about racial and sexual inequality – at dinner parties anyway.

Audiences can still expect the genial host of course (he's a comedian after all – making people laugh is his business), but with just the tiniest dash of subversion thrown in for good measure. Just think of Mr Amos as that guest who asks the awkward, pindrop moment questions at your dinner party. He just happens to be hosting it too – so dust off your jacket, pull up a pew and fill your glass with comedy cocktail – it's Amos time!

Stephen K. Amos comes to the Electric Palace, Bridport on Saturday, November 29th at 8pm. Tickets are £17+bf advance, or £19 on the door. Advance tickets are available by calling 01308 424901 or from seetickets.com

In Conversation with Jill Kennington

JILL Kennington's Photographic work embodies the rare qualities of being taken by someone who has worked both sides of the lens and her talent is unquestioned.

Jill was one of the biggest models of the 1960s appearing in many of the top publications both in Britain and abroad, including the cover of Vogue Magazine. She worked closely with Photographer John Cowen to bring a new dynamism to fashion photography that was considered groundbreaking at the time.

The list of photographers she worked with throughout the 1960s and 1970s includes; Norman Parkinson, David Bailey, Patrick Lichfield, Terence Donovan, Duffy, Helmut Newton, Jeanloup Sieff, Richard Avedon, William Klein, Bob Richardson to name just a few.

Bridport Arts Centre, Allsop

Gallery is exhibiting a collection of Jill's work over the past three decades that shows an insight into her life as a photographer.

For this month's Artists Talk, taking place on Saturday 29 November, at 2pm Bridport Arts Centre are asking you to pose questions to Jill Kennington in any shape and form, via the #askjill. ## Electric Palace to screen Old Vic's performance of The Crucible

RICHARD Armitage stars in Arthur Miller's classic American drama, The Crucible, brought vividly to life in this visceral new production by internationally acclaimed director Yaël Farber at the Old Vic Theatre, and screened at the Electric Palace, Bridport.

In a small tight-knit community, personal grievances collide with lust and superstition, fuelling widespread hysteria. Miller's timeless parable attacks the evils of mindless persecution and the terrifying power of false accusations.

Richard Armitage's credits include the forthcoming film Into the Storm. Other film and TV credits include The Hobbit trilogy, Captain America: The First Avenger and Spooks. Theatre includes The Duchess of Malfi and Macbeth for the RSC.

Yaël Farber is a multiple award-winning director and playwright. Her production of Mies Julie won a string of international awards at the 2012 Edinburgh Festival, was named one of the Top Ten Productions of 2012 by The New York Times, and Top five Productions of 2012 by The Guardian.

Arthur Miller is one of America's greatest playwrights. His many plays include All My Sons, Death of a Salesman and A View from the Bridge.

The screening of The Crucible at the Electric Palace takes place on Thursday, December 4th at 7pm. Ticket are £12 plus booking fee in advance or £14 on the door. Advance tickets are available through Bridport TIC on 01308 424901 or online:

A matinee screening will take place on Sunday, December 7th at 12noon. Ticket prices and information the same as the Thursday show.

FORTNAM

PRINCIPALLY SPEAKING...

JUDY Fellingham of Fortnam Smith & Banwell in Charmouth offers some words of advice to those selling property over the coming months. Standing on principle can be an expensive position to adopt when buying and selling property. In a level or falling market hanging out for a high price because - in one's own view - it is worth it can often backfire, because a property which is too highly priced can look out of step with the rest of the market. Can sellers really know what their properties will fetch? Surely they are worth what others will pay for them.

Property purchase and sale is seldom an end in itself. It usually forms part of a life-changing event such as gaining independence, committing to a partner, starting a family or reaching retirement. These events are bigger than any property in the scheme of things. So standing on principle can sometimes stand in the way of moving on. We have just had two fairly good years of rising prices. We have got used to this.

But all good things come to an end - until the next time.

Despite the lowest interest rates and some of the best mortgage deals in living memory the property market is showing signs of cooling. Some prices set in the spirit of acceptable optimism earlier in the year are beginning to look decidedly over-inflated now. And, as any skilled negotiator will tell you, one should always open realistically.

A general election is on its way, the European economy again looks worrisome and Christmas is round the corner. If you have any big personal or family events which involve property purchase or sale now is the time to be reasonable about your expectations. Listen to buyers, listen to the market and listen to your experienced estate agent. Listen to your heart - and not your wallet. Wallets make poor property advisors. Good estate agents make better ones.

January is always a good month for marketing new properties and we expect it to be productive for property sales. If you are considering a move do get in touch to discuss the best way of preparing for a sale in order to optimise the presentation of your home.

2014 has been an extremely busy year for us in Charmouth with approximately 50 houses sold, let us help you in 2015

HOLDITCH, DORSET - £630,000

ESCAPE to the country in this beautiful 17th Century Grade II Listed property situated in a small hamlet surrounded by the rolling West Dorset countryside. The house ticks all the boxes for a family home: four bedrooms, two en-suite, family bathroom, farmhouse kitchen, dining room, sitting room, conservatory, study, utility room and two staircases. Internally, there is an abundance of character and the property is very well presented. Externally, the plot is around half an acre, most of which is south facing. There is a double garage and parking to the front with additional vehicular access to one side. The garden contains useful outbuildings providing workshop and storage space. The setting of the property is very pretty as is the little hamlet of Holditch, with the house set opposite a small green with a stunning mature tree at its centre. There are far reaching countryside views from the first floor and most of the garden is very private. Nearby, Thorncombe village (approx. 2 miles to the east), has a larger community and offers a village shop/PO, primary school, community run swimming pool, village hall and sports and social club, both of which hold many events throughout the year. The nearest towns are Axminster, around 4 miles to the south, which offers a range of shopping and leisure facilities as well as a mainline train station with regular services to London Waterloo and Chard, just over 5 miles to the north. The coastal town of Lyme Regis is just under 10 miles away. The property is offered to the market with an asking price of £630,000. Please call Gordon and Rumsby on 01297 553768.

BONSOIR HOUSE, CREWKERNE - £485,000

JEREMY Smith, Manager of the award winning Symonds & Sampson branch in Beaminster is delighted to of been instructed to place on the market what he describes as possibly the best house in Crewkerne. Jeremy commented 'this is a really rare opportunity to buy not only a fine property, but also a little bit of Crewkerne's history'.

Bonsoir House is a Grade II listed Regency ear town house built in 1840 by a local builder and architect John Patch. Originally built to house the owner of the adjacent sail cloth factory, it has more recently been used as an office building for the luxury pyjama manufacturer Bonsoir of London. Early view is advised to avoid disappointment as the property is priced to sell due to our highly motivated vendor.

Bonsoir House is arranged over four floors as follows:- Heavy timber entrance door to large reception hall, cloakroom, dining room with feature brick fireplace, study and a stunning 20' kitchen with fully integrated range of Smeg units including double oven, fridge/freezer, wine cooler, hob unit, dishwasher etc. Off the kitchen lies a large breakfast room. On the lower ground floor are two useful cellars. The first floor has a land-room, stunning 33' drawing room with three wonderful arched windows to the front, guest bedroom 4 and an en-suite bathroom. On the second floor is a master bedroom suite offering a 20' bedroom a large bath/shower room and a dressing room, two further bedrooms. There is also a further family bath/shower room and a small mezzanine floor offering a reading area.

Outside there are good size gardens to the rear and parking for four vehicles.

Symonds & Sampson are quoting a guide price of £485,000 for the property and early viewing is advised. Please contact them on 01308 863100 to arrange a viewing and avoid disappointment.

New Qoros 3 City SUV 1.6T

MODERN distinctive design, ideal for an active city lifestyle, commanding driving position, excellent connectivity, high safety standards

New international car brand, Qoros, is revealing its third series production car, the new Qoros 3 City SUV 1.6T, at the 2014 Guangzhou International Auto Show. The pinnacle of the range, the compact City SUV is designed and engineered to appeal to consumers with an appetite for living life to the full, and who are looking for a car to fit into their active, premium, city lifestyle. With its distinctive, modern design it has the flexibility to balance the requirements of the urban commute with the pursuit of weekend leisure activities in the countryside. The new compact urban SUV is scheduled to go on sale before the end of December 2014 with prices starting from RMB 140,000.

Sitting 67mm higher than the 3 Hatch, City SUV drivers benefit from a more commanding driving position that delivers a sense of control, safety and security. For day-to-day city driving the City SUV provides better visibility for the driver, while the increased ride height ensures easier entry and egress. For out-of-town leisure activities, the new model offers higher ground clearance, larger wheels and robust body protection. The higher ride height enhances driveability and manoeuvrability to give the driver more confidence on rough or uneven road surfaces.

Developed by an international team of experienced specialists and new, young automotive talent from China, the Qoros 3 City SUV 1.6T exhibits the top quality engineering and excellent safety standards with which Qoros is making a powerful global impression.

The City SUV is being manufactured in the brand's new highly-efficient and environmentally-sustainable assembly plant in Changshu, 80km north-west of Shanghai, on the same production line as the 3 Sedan and 3 Hatch.

Exterior design

The new Qoros 3 City SUV 1.6T features a bold evolution of distinctive signature Qoros design cues, although aesthetic enhancements give the car a unique character and reflect the individualistic preferences of its target customers.

For the compact class, the Qoros 3 City SUV 1.6T features a comparatively long wheelbase (2694mm), generous width (1854mm), and a short rear overhang (815mm). These elegant proportions suit perfectly the vehicle's bold, high stance (1504mm), distinctive body cladding and detailed styling.

At the front, additional cladding and a front skid-plate give the face a more rugged, masculine look. The round fog lights are set into boldly-contoured recesses that wrap around the bumper, details that provide energy and poise.

The New Mercedes-Benz CLA Shooting Brake

▲ The new Mercedes-Benz CLA Shooting Brake

BREATH TAKINGLY sporty proportions and a powerfully dynamic design idiom with sensuously shaped surfaces already made the CLA unmistakable in its four-door Coupé guise. It is now followed by a further design icon, the CLA Shooting Brake, with a unique look all of its own. The lower overall height and the elongated coupé-style roof contour line, the low greenhouse and the sweep of the high beltline are the key design features of its distinctive profile. As is the gentle downward slope of the roof line, which makes for significantly more headroom than in the four-door Coupé. The CLA Shooting Brake (length/width/height: 4630/1777/1435 mm) will initially be available with a choice of two diesel and three petrol engines as well as with 4MATIC all-wheel drive. It goes on sale in January 2015, with the first models going to customers towards the end of March 2015.

"The new CLA Shooting Brake is the latest member of our successful family of compact models. The range, which now includes five models, covers an extremely wide spectrum: with the spacious B-Class sports tourer, the youthfully dynamic A-Class, the avant-garde CLA-Class Coupé and the compact GLA-Class SUV, we cater for a host of different customer wishes in this segment," says Ola Källenius, Member of the Divisional Board Mercedes-Benz Cars, responsible for Marketing & Sales. "Like its big brother, the CLS Shooting Brake, the CLA Shooting Brake is targeted at active customers who are looking outside of the mainstream for a car that impresses with a high utility value."

The guiding principle behind the designers' work was that of sensual purity as an expression of modern luxury. "The new CLA Shooting Brake offers a contemporary interpretation of sensual purity and represents the perfect synthesis between the emotionality of a coupé and the intelligence of a shooting brake," explains Gorden Wagener, Head of Design at Daimler AG. "The styling of our CLA Shooting Brake is extremely progressive as well as unmistakable. Once again, we have created a whole new class of vehicle."

The thrilling design details of the limited-edition OrangeArt Edition special model ensure that it brings an exciting note to the market launch. Orange highlight rings around the bi-xenon headlamps ensure that they stand out in spectacular style. The rim flanges of the AMG light-alloy wheels are painted in orange on the OrangeArt Edition. Orange/black sports seats and orange contrasting topstitching help to define the interior.

As spacious as they come: beauty in its most practical guise

The elegantly long drawn-out Shooting Brake tail end, in conjunction with the variability that this offers, guarantees exceptional recreational value without compromising on the CLA's aspiration to represent design at its best. At the same time, headroom in the rear is significantly greater than in the four-door CLA. At 94.7 cm, the effective headroom in the rear is 4 cm higher than it is in the companion model. Access to the second row of seats is also much easier.

This spaciousness is one of the strengths of the Shooting Brake. The load compartment offers a capacity that ranges from 495 to 1354 litres (when loaded up to the upper edge of the rear seat backrests or loaded to the roof with the rear bench seat folded down, respectively). If the rear seats are moved into the more steeply raked "cargo" position, the load capacity increases to 595 litres while still leaving space for five occupants.

The width of the luggage compartment, at up to 1328 mm, is leading in this segment.

Clever little details, including the magnetic catch on the through-loading flap in the rear-seat backrest for long items, such as skis, are further typical examples of this carefully thought-out concept.

Options such as the electrically operated EASY-PACK tailgate or the Load Compartment package help to enhance convenience and variability when using the load compartment. Apart from the "cargo" positioning option for the rear-seat backrests, the Load Compartment package includes a collapsible box, a 12 V socket and an additional stowage net at the side of the load compartment. To add to the exclusive ambience, aluminium strips with anti-slip inlays are available as an option for the load compartment floor.

Local football round-up

WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

Valley gorged by rampant Seasiders
Charmouth crash out, but Hounds through to last eight

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE D3
LYME REGIS 8 CLYST VALLEY RES 0
STRIKER Joe Bond was the undoubted star of the show as Lyme Regis breezed to a convincing victory at the Davey Fort on Saturday.

A youthful Clyst line-up was under the pump early on when Ben Whittington opened the scoring in the second minute.

The lead was doubled on the quarter hour when left-back Alfie Bellworthy linked well with Bond before shimmying past the visiting keeper and rolling the ball into the empty net for his first senior goal for the club.

Bond then took centre stage with a brace before the interval to put the Seasiders in complete control at 4-0.

The visitors had their best period in the 10 minutes after the break but once Bond completed his hat-trick from the penalty spot the wind was taken out of their sails.

Lyme comfortably saw out the game adding three more goals with Bond taking his personal tally to five and strike-partner Julien Simier getting in on the act with pick of the goals - a raking shot from the corner of the box that found the far corner.

Lyme manager Tim Edwards was impressed with his side, he told View Sport: "They (Clyst) were a really young side so we decided to try and get at them straight away and unsettle them. This worked a treat with Ben getting the early goal and we dominated the first-half to the extent that their heads were right down."

"I think they must have had a rollicking at half-time as they came out much more determined after the break, but once we got the fifth it really killed them off."

As well as the obvious plaudits for Bond - whose haul was the highest individual tally for the Lyme first team since Adam Caddy scored six against Perry Street three years ago - Edwards had a mention for Whittington: "He broke things up really well in the holding midfield position."

LYME TEAM: L.Cleal, A.Bellworthy, K.White, G.Knight, M.Laing (Capt), B.Whittington, M.Bailey, R.Fellingham, D.Ellis, J.Bond, J.Simier.

Subs used: C.Larcombe, A.Cleal, D.Rowe.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE Daisy Hutchings Cup - R2 BEAMINSTER RES (D2) 0 HAWKCHURCH UTD (D3) 2

THIRD Division Hawkchurch United provided one of the Daisy Hutchings cup upsets as they booked a place in the quarter-finals with a 2-0 win at Division Two outfit Beaminster Reserves.

The Hawks dominated possession in the first half. Luke Harding, on target for the fourth game in succession, opened the scoring in the 20th minute when he pounced on a defensive error.

◆ PERSONAL BEST: Joe Bond scored five of Lyme's eight in the crushing of Cyst Valley Reserves.

The second-half was a repeat of the first with the visitors once again enjoying the lion's share of the game.

But they had to wait until the 76th minute for Jamie Harris to round off a neat move to make it 2-0.

CHARMOUTH (D2) 2 CREWKERNE RANGERS (D2) 3

CHARMOUTH hopes of lifting the Daisy Hitchings Cup for the first time in their history ended with defeat against Division Two colleagues Crewkerne Rangers at Barrs Lane.

Jack Male put the visitors ahead in the 10th minute but Charmouth were soon level when Dan Rumsby headed home Brin Seward's excellent cross.

But Rangers restored their lead through Steve Dunkerton to head into the break with their noses in front.

A foul by Bill Ward then allowed Simon Densol to make it 3-1 from the penalty spot before Robin's MoM netted a consolation 15 minutes from time.

Waytown Hounds (D2) 4 Winsham Utd Res (D4) 1

DIVISION FOUR battlers Winsham United Reserves started well in this cup-tie at Netherbury and could well have taken an early lead.

But the opener came at the other end when Jon Legg headed home Nat Bowditch's pinpoint cross.

Two minutes later The Hounds took full control as James Loveridge made it 2-0 with a drive from the edge of the box.

Winsh player-manager Richard White halved the deficit soon after half-time and the visitors almost equalised when they struck the post.

But Legg restored order with his second following good work from Simon Smyth. The result was put beyond any doubt when Loveridge cracked home another 20-yarder to make it 4-1.

Legg missed a golden chance to notch a hat-trick when his late penalty was well saved after he himself had been brought down.

Steve Masters got manager Marke Hughes' vote as MoM.

Premier Division

CREWKERNE TOWN 7 MISTERTON 1
A 7-1 DEFEAT at title-chasing Crewkerne represents something of a success for a Misterton side still shell-shocked after two massive defeats.

Jamie Spurdle put the hosts ahead and Ben Laver made it 2-0 before Sam Rabner pulled a goal back for Missy with a long range shot that keeper Matt Bisgrove failed to see.

But Pete Symes and Adam Dawe made it 4-1 before the interval and the result was beyond doubt.

Spurdle struck twice more in the second-half to complete his hat-trick and Symes completed the rout on a Henhayes pitch that resembled a swamp at the end.

Crewkerne joint manager Ben Cox, said: "Massive credit to Misterton who battled away for the whole match and seem to have built up some good team spirit under new manager Jon Lord."

Lord himself said: "We have high regard for Crewkerne and their quality but we never gave up and created some chances. I could not be prouder considering what the club has been through."

Mizzey keeper Ash Osborn was selected as Lord's MoM.

ILMINSTER COLTS 1 BEAMINSTER 4
ILMINSTER looked on course to end their miserable six-game losing run when they led through a superb looping Adam Male half-volley after 75 minutes at the Memorial Ground.

But a second-half onslaught finally paid dividends for the Rainbows when Josh Hunter equalised. For here they cantered home with Hunter completing a fine hat-trick and MoM Adam Moss also netting on his first game back after breaking a toe in the opening weekend of the season.

"It's looks on paper like an easy win, but far from it - I applaud Ilminster for a battling performance. But the way we came at them in the second-half it was just a question of time," said Beaminster manager Dean Newman.

Ilminster manager Matt Rowsell felt

◆ SAVE: Robin Harte's penalty save at 1-0 was crucial in Netherbury's 5-3 win at Luso-Chard.

his side were worth at least a point: "I thought we were possibly the better side for the majority of the match."

SHEPTON BEAU 1 PERRY STREET 2
GOALS in the first 20 minutes from Dan Collins and Darren Contreras saw Perry Street leapfrog over hosts Shepton Beauchamp and claim top spot in the Premier Division table.

Dan Peach pulled one back from the penalty spot but the hosts, despite a period of domination couldn't find an equaliser.

"It's not easy when you come up against 10-men behind the ball," said Shepton manager Aggie Smith.

S.PETHERTON 5 LYME REGIS RES 0
LYME Regis Reserves' manager Gerard Hitchcock was scathing in his criticism of his side after a hefty defeat up at Lightgate Lane.

"The annoying thing is we were totally on top for the opening quarter of the match but appeared to believe it was too easy and took out foot off the gas," said Hitchcock.

The Seasiders went close to opening the scoring when Jack Durrant smashed a shot that was tipped against the cross-bar by stand-in keeper Paul Holt with the goal at his mercy.

Pethy took the lead against the run of play through Rich Hebditch and added a second soon after.

Lyme were given a mountain to climb when centre-back turned centre forward Steve Bowker nodded home from five yards with Lyme claiming that defender Mark Batey was fouled in the build-up.

The hosts cruised through the second-half with further goals from Lee Richards and Ash Gibson.

"We lacked heart and bite all across the park. We also failed to get close to Richards and Danny Rendall who controlled the game having won the central midfield battle hands-down," added Hitchcock.

Division One

LUSO-CHARD 3 NETHERBURY 5
NETHERBURY fought back from 2-1 down at half time to leave Seavington with a deserved three points.

After two weeks without a game the Ambers looked rusty and Luso's pace up-front caused them problems. The home team took a deserved lead midway through the first-half from Igor Costa who then crashed the ball home.

Luso were then awarded a penalty after Richard Pincombe was adjudged to have handled in the box. Keeper Robin Harte came to the Ambers rescue pulling off a smart save down to his left.

This seemed to lift the visitors and two minutes later they were level when Tom Franklin chipped the ball up with his right foot and then acrobatically volleyed the ball over his head into the top corner.

But the hosts regained the lead in the 37th minute when Costa struck again.

The Ambers dominated the opening quarter-hour of the second half but missed three presentable headers from corners.

However, they were given a way back into the game when referee Wayne Ridout awarded a penalty after Ryan Gall had his shirt pulled when through on goal. Franklin confidently converted the penalty to make it 2-2.

The hosts then took the lead for the first time in the match when John Kingston unleashed an unstoppable angled shot which flew across the keeper and arrowed into the top corner from all of 25 yards.

Luso were not finished and, with a smart counter attack drew level when Tiago Casimiro shot low into the bottom corner.

The Ambers had to respond yet again and did so when Chris Symes slotted under the keeper and Ryan Gall rounded off the scoring in the 81st minute.

Assistant Manager Paul Cuff said: "All our players deserve massive credit after from coming back from 2-1 down."

We had to work hard, be patient and keep our composure against a tough opposition."

Cuff picked out the midfield duo of Franklin and Karl Ives as the top performers.

LYME REGIS BANTAMS 0 BARRINGTON 4
LYME Bantams' joint-manager Darren Poole felt the final score line flattered visitors Barrington after a 4-0 reverse at Woodroffe.

"They deserved the win, but 2-0 would probably be fairer and we did create some decent chances" said Poole.

Barrington took the lead after 20 minutes but Cam Fowler missed from close range at the other end before the visitors made it 2-0.

In the second-half Ash Walkey had a fine free kick well saved by the visitors' keeper who also denied Shaun Stewart with a great stop.

Barrington went 3-0 up before a crucial decision by referee Andy Dyke went against The Seasiders as Poole explained: "One of their lads kicked out at Chris Simpson after he had fouled him three yards outside our area, but the ref awarded a penalty to Barrington with everybody expecting him to send off the striker!"

Gape strike quells yappy Yeovil team

Beaminster 1 Yeovil & Sherborne 3rd 0
BEAMINSTER followed up their first victory of the season last week with a second against an unruly and bad-tempered Yeovil side.

Although it was only a single goal victory and did not come anywhere near to wiping out the ten goals Beaminster conceded in the reverse fixture on the first day of the season, they did have the satisfaction of leapfrogging their opponents to leave them on the bottom of the Channel One table.

Beaminster once again created a host of chances, and, but for better finishing and a superb display from the Yeovil keeper, it well could have been ten.

So dominant were Beaminster that their opponents only managed to get into the home 25 in the last ten minutes where they managed to force two late short corners.

The hosts started brightly and had soon forced a number of short corners which they failed to capitalise on and it looked like they were never going to score.

But midway through the first half Lydia Brookings's cross was met by Andrea Prentice.

It looked like the keeper had thwarted them again, but she could only parry the shot back to Prentice and when she fired in the rebound it hit a defender's foot, conceding a penalty flick.

Jackie Gape, back in Bridport for a couple of weeks, took responsibility to fire Beaminster ahead.

Beaminster dominated all over the pitch leaving Yeovil frustrated and eventually a player short for continually questioning the umpire's decisions.

The second half followed a similar pattern; the Yeovil keeper continually in action. Julia May hit the post after receiving the ball back in a well worked move, but they could not add to their total.

Finally Yeovil let their sticks do the work instead of their mouths and for the final ten minutes had success in Beaminster's final 25, winning two short corners.

An experienced side from set-pieces this was their chance to snatch an undeserved point, but Tracey Smith quickly closed down the play to give Beaminster their second victory on the trot.

◆ FINDING umpires and referees is difficult enough in local sport, and therefore it is disappointing that players continually harangue them when they give their time for free. Without their goodwill, most local sport could not take place.

The continual questioning and bickering in the visitors' ranks finally led to the umpire Mike Harvey – a former England international – first of all green carding a Yeovil player, who persisted and was given a yellow and ten minutes in the sin-in.

Hawks unable to convert pressure into goals

USHC PLYMOUTH 2 WEST DORSET HAWKS 1
WEST DORSET started well at Plymouth with some good play between the whole team. But it was the home team who eventually opened the scoring.

After the interval West Dorset applied the pressure once more squeezing USHC into defence. However the Hawks were caught on the break allowing Plymouth to double their lead.

Eventually the visitors were rewarded for their efforts when Robin Goodfellow managed to sprint in behind a defender to deflect a decent pass into goal.

Despite finishing the game the better team Hawks could not force the equaliser.

Captain Rick Dormer picked out Gavin Brookings for his solid performance and Mike Thompson and Russell Coombes for their consistent hassling of the Plymouth defence.

Kellas and Dormer at the double

WEST DORSET A 4 NORTH DEVON A 2
AFTER losing at league leaders Bridgwater B the previous week, West Dorset A faced another tricky match at home to second placed North Devon A at the weekend.

The visitors started the brighter of the two teams forcing West Dorset onto the back foot in the open.

However it was the hosts who had the first attempt on goal when John Kellas's shot struck the top of the goal frame.

North Devon continued to pose the greater threat and it was no surprise when they took the lead after 20 minutes following a goalmouth scramble and things got even worse for the home side when Rich Wilson was forced off with a thigh injury.

However, these setbacks seemed to spark the hosts into life as they reorganised and restricted the visitors' attacks for the remainder of the half.

Just before half-time they drew level when Alex Drew played the ball into Kellas who scored at the second attempt after his first shot was saved by the keeper.

In contrast to their lacklustre start, West Dorset began the second half playing the better hockey, displaying much more composure in possession with Drew, Rob Cox and Jules Lawrence dominating in mid-field.

It wasn't long before West Dorset took the lead when Bob Dormer smashed the ball home following a short corner. He scored his second, a superb solo effort just minutes later when he beat a couple of defenders before blasting the ball past the keeper from a tight angle.

North Devon were struggling to cope with the home side's tight marking and fast counterattacks and began losing their discipline with some of their players constantly complaining and questioning the umpires decisions for which two of their players received warnings.

With ten minutes remaining West Dorset increased their lead. Dormer, who was giving the visitors defence nightmares, once again beat his man before crossing to Kellas who slotted the ball home.

West Dorset continued to create further chances but could not add to their tally and North Devon were able to grab a consolation in the final minutes.

WD skipper Henry Middleton said: "This was a game of two halves for us."

"We struggled before the interval but following a bit of a reshuffle we bossed the second half, playing some great counter-attacking hockey and tightening up in defence; Giles and Bruce Maltby both had great games at the back."

"North Devon also struggled to cope with the pace of our wingers Giles Harvey and Man-of-the-Match Bob Dormer in the second half."

Scrum down - rugby round-up

Greening's kick proves the difference

Bridport 3 Puddletown 0
THIS local-derby was a tight affair, settled by a single Rory Greening penalty at the start of the match writes Adrian Everitt.

The game failed to reach expectations and was one that everyone would want to forget. Neither team managed to put any phases of attacking play together, with errors and ill-discipline dominating the match, it was the defences that ruled the roost.

The game became a tense and scrappy contest with passes fumbled and turnovers conceded at critical moments, and both sides spurned gilt-edged chances to cross the whitewash and establish dominance.

Early on Puddletown fly half Baz Dovell was taken out with a needless late tackle as he kicked from in his own dead ball area leaving Bridport were a player down after a yellow card was issued.

However the visitors failed to take advantage of the numerical advantage and were penalised for straying offside at a 5m scrum. Allowing Greening to score the only points of the game.

Late in the first half, Puddletown applied pressure, with flanker Sam Pomeroy driving through centre field. Bridport were penalised for coming in at the side of the ruck, 15m out in front of their own posts.

Puddletown chose to run the resulting penalty instead of taking the three points – a decision they would regret by the end of the game. The ball was dropped just short of the line, Bridport won the resulting scrum and cleared the ball to halfway.

As in previous games, Bridport's scrum were sound and their line-out effective. Mike Pibworth was again influential across the pitch.

The back line however, continues to look like a 'work in progress', not helped when fly half Ricky Stubbs aggravated an injury in the warm-up and was unable to start.

Will Everitt deputised and found himself at fly-half, centre and scrum half all in the space of 40 minutes as Jason Kidd and then Tony Dommatt were introduced to try and break the deadlock.

Outside centre Greening and Bridport's Man of the Match Daragh McLoughlin made some decent breaks but were unable to off-load the telling pass.

The second half was much the same as the first, with both sides doing their best to cancel out the opposition's attack. Bridport came close to scoring a try, but the referee had blown up for "crossing" on the 22m line.

The only high point for Puddletown was a wonderful clearing kick from captain Tom Yeatman, who, from a very narrow angle, made 70 metres from his own 22m.

The game came to an end with neither side being able to make inroads into the opposition's half and both sets of supporters becoming increasingly frustrated.

Bridport did enough to win this one, but will probably wonder why they didn't do so more convincingly.

Swanage & Wareham U11 4 Bridport 6

AT Last, a victory! With Bridport's away fixture to Lychett Minster being cancelled, the Swans offered to host them at short notice; and what a match!

Tackling, a technique which had been missing in the Blues armoury suddenly emerged. Driving over the ball, they maintained their shape and played well as a team.

But they did not have it all their own way and this was a hard fought game; Swanage giving as good as they got.

However the Bridport coaching team always believed that if they could win the ball their backs would score, and that they did.

Jack Handford replied to Swans immediate score, and James Clatworthy burst through the middle to take Bridport ahead. Handford's second was followed by two tries from George Found, and a turbo charge from Oliver Hansford-Harvey.

It would be unfair to select a 'man of the match' from such a team performance, but Hansford-Harvey is beginning to develop into an all-round Ttyro, and was influential in Bridport's win by six tries to four. Next week they face Blandford at home.

Dorchester U9s enjoy Devon day trip

THERE was a fantastic turnout of 20 players for the journey over the border to Honiton with Dorchester fielding two sides against the hosts one.

Dorchester 1 were first to play and neither the opposition nor the mud fazed them, the match ending in a 7-7 draw.

Dorchester had some cracking runs seeing Rocco Taylor over the try line several times with Charlie Brookes supporting well across the board, and Eddie Quick and Toby Bemand both committed in the tackle.

Dorchester 2 worked well together with several members getting themselves on the score sheet.

The tackles were coming fast and furious from both sides with possession switching across after 7th tackle several times before the ball reached the try line.

Notably tackling well for Dorchester were Ryan Sims and Fletcher Ross, with Ben Senior and Freddie Lambourn working hard to support.

Bridport FC

Bees survive late Spartans revival

Bridport Reserves 4 Piddletrenthide Spartans 3
 BRIDPORT Reserves had to survive a late comeback from Piddletrenthide Spartans after the Dorset Premier side had built up 4-1 lead after an hour writes Stuart Broom.

A Ben Clarke hat-trick had put the Bees seemingly well on the way to a quarter-final place, but the Dorset Division One outfit switched tactics and came within a whisker of forcing an equaliser.

Bridport started brightly and Clarke gave them an early lead steering the ball home from a corner. They increased the lead on 20 minutes when Dan Baggs headed home Tristan Cox's cross.

However, Spartans showed their determination by pulling a goal back almost immediately when Neil Kellaway chased a long ball over the Bees defence before cutting in and scoring with aplomb.

Clarke grabbed his second on 40 minutes when he drove home from 10 yards following Gale's cut-back to open up a two-goal advantage, and soon into the second-half completed his hat-trick with an easy finish.

Bridport appeared in total control but the Spartans flung caution to the wind by changing their formation and Kieron Howes saw two efforts well saved by Bees' keeper Jamie Fry.

However with 20 minutes left Kellaway once again popped up to reduce the arrears, and when Marcus Simpson scored a third it was game on.

Tails up the Spartans threw everything at the Bees and Fry made crucial saves from Kellaway whilst Roger Cummings had to clear an Owen Kirlew flick off the line, as the Bees held on.

Bridport manager Robin Townsend said: "We should have been home and dry at 4-1, but fair play to Spartans for their comeback.

"As I told the players, it was not so much about the performance, but the result, which we got."

Portland U15 5 Bridport 6
 BRIDPORT were disappointed at the size and state of the Portland pitch in what turned out to be a good old game of traditional British football with end-to-end action.

Unable to play their usual passing game because of the long grass, Bridport adapted their game and, after the lead had changed hands several times, clinched the three points with wonderful Dane James free-kick with the last action of the game.

Talbot recovers to clinch late win

PREVIOUS double winner Dudley Sterry, having failed to secure a hat-trick of victories last year in his supercharged MG J2, returned to the Southern Counties Hardy Classic Trial last weekend looking to achieve that elusive victory.

But he was again denied the premier award when the conditions proved too much of a challenge for the venerable partnership.

A maximum 12-point penalty on the third test means the elusive triple will have to wait for another year.

Heavy rainfall during the week preceding the national championship qualifier gave the event a completely different character to that of 12 months ago when conditions were considerably drier.

Undeterred, the entry of over 80 motorcycles and cars departed the Southern Counties Shooting Lodge start with the challenge of 13 testing sections utilising old roads and farm tracks all with a steep gradient.

The object of this sporting exercise, being the further up the section and/or gradient the car goes the less penalties accrued. If you reach the top then no penalties apply and the score is '0' or a 'clean' as it is referred to in trialling.

The first test, near Minterne Magna, allowed competitors to become accustomed to the conditions under wheel, with all but one of the motorcycles going clear and just two of the four wheel contingent accruing penalties.

The first of two sections north of Maiden Newton started to test all categories, with only five of the car classes netting zero penalties.

Steady rainfall then made the conditions even more demanding which was illustrated when last year's winner, Carl Talbot dropped 10 penalty points on the fourth test of the day which was situated just off of the A37 Dorchester to Yeovil road.

Having given the initiative to lan Davis in his VW Buggy the Morris Trialmaster pilot kept his focus and was back in contention by the time the event approached Bridport and Beaminstor where Davis picked up a total of nine penalties on two tests, leaving his advantage as a tenuous single point.

Both Talbot and Davis went clean at Meerhay, north of Beaminstor, leaving the outcome open as they headed to the Mike's Mess test. Here the outcome of the event was determined.

Davis received nine penalties but so did all of his rivals in the 'specials' class with the exception of Talbot who cleared the section without penalty and took his second win on the Woolbridge Motor Club organised event.

The Class "O" category for more standard machines saw a steady performance by Weymouth Leige Sport driver Phil Hyde take him to the head of the division, but his performance was such that he won the Best Woolbridge Motor Club member award and was therefore taken out of the class order.

This left an epic battle for the class win raging right until the end between the Suzuki x90 of Paul Brooks and John Tite from Lyons Gate.

The Ford Jago driver progressively built an advantage on the early sections but dropped five points at Meerhay and lost a further three to his opponent on the penultimate section of the event to leave the scores level.

The class honours went to the Jago man by virtue of his faster performance on a timed test, the results of which were employed to determine a winner in such circumstances.

As in 2013 the motorcycle class B2 catered for solo motorcycles between 225cc and 450cc and again it provided the overall winner of the motorcycle event in the form of Gas Pampera rider Geoff Walker who, as he did last year, took his 237cc machine around the course without penalty.

With Walker elevated to the overall two wheel win, the class honours went to Dorchester Husaberg TE250 rider Daniel Tinney who dropped scores on only two tests to end the event nine points clear of his nearest challenger lan Barton with his Suzuki DR2400 on a penalty total of 19.

Youth Cricket

Big win for Cerne

AFTER a mid-term break the West Dorset Indoor Youth Cricket League resumed at The Osprey Leisure Centre with two games in the under 12's section which produced contrasting results.

Cerne Valley U12 226-1 beat Weymouth B 17 all out by 209 runs

A DOMINANT Cerne put Weymouth to the sword with an emphatic display with both bat and ball.

Batting first, Cerne's batsman plundered runs at will against a plucky but outclassed attack.

Jamie Stuart led the way with a majestic 70 not out. Weymouth gained their only wicket via a well executed run out to dismiss the unfortunate Sam Downey one run short of his half-century.

Chasing a formidable 227 for victory Weymouth were blown away as Will Maltby claimed three wickets in his first over for the loss of just a single run.

Two run outs and a fine catch by Stuart finished off the opposition.

Weymouth C U12 115-5 beat Portland 105 all out by 10 runs

A FINE unbeaten 46 from Ollie James formed the backbone of the Weymouth innings as both teams found runs hard to come by against some accurate bowling and excellent fielding.

All the Portland bowlers got amongst the wickets with the highlight being a first competitive wicket for nine-year old Bradley Morgan.

A hard grafting 14 not out from Ben Hunter enabled Weymouth to post 115.

Portland's reply got off to the worst possible start with Michael Dunning being run out for a duck in the first over.

Weymouth's bowlers kept the run rate down and despite a cultured 45 from Ben Alford, Portland fell ten runs short in the final over.

Victory for County footballers

Cornwall U18s 1 Dorset 2

DESPITE several late withdrawals, leaving the team without any substitutes to call on, Dorset produced their best display of the season in knocking Cornwall out of the Mick Parry Memorial Trophy at the home of AFC Newquay.

Manager Jamie Murray had to reshuffle his back four due to the lack of defenders in the squad, playing midfielder Sam Pashen at sweeper alongside debutant Jack Miller at centre back and goalkeeper Taylor Hibbs at left back.

The big Cornish team had the better of the opening exchanges without threatening Matt Downes in the Dorset goal.

As the first half progressed Dorset gained more of the possession and captain Sammy Glatzel struck the Cornish bar following good work by the lively Dan Quirke after fifteen minutes, before they deservedly went ahead just after the half hour when Glatzel strode through the midfield before placing his shot past James Wignall in the home goal.

Eight minutes late Harry Ahearn put the hosts back on level terms, finding space between the Dorset back four before finding the back of the net.

On the hour mark Jonah Ayunga went close for Dorset when his header struck the post following good work on the right by Reece De Cateret and Ben Wellman.

However De Cateret's luck ran out shortly after when he received a second yellow card to leave Dorset with a numerical disadvantage. This only appeared to galvanise the visitors and five minutes later a neat pass from Ayunga found Quirke on the edge of the box, and he drew the goalkeeper to score.

Both teams had chances in the remaining ten minutes, but the tenacious Dorset team hung on to clinch a spot in the semi-final.

Team: Jonah Ayunga (Bridport Youth), Reece De-Cateret (Shaftesbury Town), Sammy Glatzel (Bournemouth Sports), Rhys Hayter (Bridport), Taylor Hibbs (Dorchester Town), Charlie Jones (Redlands), Jack Miller (Swanage), Josh Omamoghho (Dorchester Town), Sam Pashen (Dorchester Town), Dan Quirke (Sherborne), Ben Wellman (Dorchester Town).

INSIDE: Lyme Regis Skittles League news

Clyst carved up as bubbling Bond hits five

JOE Bond was toast of the Davey Fort clubhouse on Saturday evening after he scored five times in Lyme Regis' 8-0 thumping of Clyst Valley Reserves in a match sponsored by The Old Forge Fossil Shop.

This was the hard-running striker's ninth hat-trick for the Seaside's first team who closed the gap on leaders Exmouth Town Reserves to five points at the top of the Devon & Exeter League Division Three table.

Next up for Lyme is Saturday's visit by Tedburn St Mary who currently sit down in 11th spot (2.15pm ko).

It was however a disappointing weekend for both Lyme Reserves and Bantams.

ment's South Petherton but ended up going down 5-0 at Lightgate Lane while the Bantams were beaten 4-0 at Woodroffe by red-hot Division One title favourites Barrington.

The Bantams have no fixture next weekend but the Reserves have another tough assignment when they head off to Tatworth where new Premier Division leaders Perry Street lay in wait.

league double chance

Lyme will however be buoyed by the knowledge that they beat 'The Mothers' 2-0 in the reverse fixture back in September.

Over at Barrs Lane goals from Dan Rumsby and Dan Watson couldn't save CHARMOUTH from a 3-2 Daisy Hutchings Cup defeat at the hands of Crewkerne Rangers.

The Robins are another side without a game on Saturday.

UPLYME had a blank weekend. The Reserves had no fixture while the waterlogged Venlake Ground saw the first team's Daisy Hutchings cup-tie with Division Four high-flyers Merriott Rovers postponed.

Steve Gillan's troops return to action at the weekend looking to draw clear of the Division Two relegation zone with the trip to Crewkerne Rangers.

Meanwhile the Reserves, still third in Division Four, welcome league new boys Chard United AllStars who are currently proping up the league.
